"A girl who'll satisfy her man."

For less than a dollar, nobody should be without one. Luckily, nobody has to be. Because Barbara Fairchild's got a new single on Columbia, and it's called "A Girl Who'll Satisfy Her Man." Very satisfying.

Ashworth Sets Up Tourist Info Center

NASHVILLE — A Tourist Information Center, soon to be franchised, has been begun here by "Grand Ole Opry" artist Ernie Ashworth, with much of the information pertinent to country music sites.

A self-contained unit, each resembling a closed-circuit television set, is being placed in service stations at access roads off the interstates and other principal highways. There is no cost to the station; the revenue for operation is derived from "hidden" advertising. Only triple-A motels, for example, are shown on the available housing accommodations list, a service for which triple-A pays. Other listings are similarly handled. However, all historic sites and those of general interest are shown.

Ashworth said two of the units soon would be placed at the "Opry" House, as a service to customers who come there to pick up their tickets. He hopes to saturate the service stations and tourist shops of Nashville.

"Eventually there will be syndication," Ashworth said, "with these devices installed in major cities around the nation. They will perform a public service."

The firm will be known as the Ernie Ashworth Tourist Information Center. Among other things, they give specific directions to the "Grand Ole Opry." Ashworth, a Hickory artist, has been a member of the "Opry" for nearly a decade.

Glaser Gets Chance In 'Tick' Rescoring

NASHVILLE — The complete scoring of the movie "Tick... Tick... Tick..." by the Glaser Brothers was the result of a decision to rescoring the film after the first set of music and lyrics failed to harmonize with the central theme of the story.

Tomppall Glaser, leader of the MGM trio, said the parent company was dissatisfied with the original soundtrack, and asked the Glasers if they would undertake the job of making music which fit.

"We first watched a private showing of the film with the original track, then heard it with no track," Glaser explains. "Then we went to work with it."

The result was a complete volume of films from the Glaser stable. Jim Glaser wrote three of the themes, Chuck Glaser one, their producer, Jack Clement wrote one, Jim Glaser and Jimmy Payne co-wrote one, Hoover wrote two, including the theme, Doodle Owens wrote one, and John Hartford, long a Glaser writer, wrote two. One of these was "Gentle On My Mind," which was taken from the Glaser catalog. Both the BMI and ASCAP firms of the Glasers were utilized. Clement did all the mixing.

Glaser said he feels the movie contains music which has special appeal to the young.

"We're hopeful this will open new avenues for us," Glaser said. "MGM appeared pleased, and Mike Curb already has promised us another opportunity to do the soundtrack of a movie soon."

This is believed to be the first soundtrack cut in its entirety here, with all tunes written by writers in one stable, and done completely by one group.

WWCO-FM In Expansion

WATERBURY, Conn. — Radio Station WWCO-FM, Connecticut's only full-time outlet for "modern country music," has expanded its Friday night live weekend country music show and will broadcast an hour each week.

The old Thomaston Opera House is the setting for the show, featuring New England talent and top national artists as guests.

Giving full emphasis to the country atmosphere, the station calls its concept "Nashville, Connecticut, USA," and features country music two nights weekly at the Holiday Inn, the Friday night show at the Thomaston, a "Nashville Room" with Nashville-style chicken, club tours to five spots featuring country music, and horse races at the Green Mountain race track.

WWCO is a Merv Griffin group station.

Put it there.

Shaking hands isn't always such a nice thing. Sometimes it hurts.

And that's what Freddy Weller is singing about on his new Columbia single.

"I Shook The Hand."

Backed with "We Gotta All Get Together," the single originally shipped without an A side. But all the airplay on "I Shook The Hand" is really starting to shake things up.

You win.

The big bluff goes too far. You're into it up to the ears. Your house, your car, your business empire.

A bad situation. But the makings for a great song.

Carl and Pearl's new single, "USED TO OWN THIS TRAIN," takes you into a long, lopsided poker game and the story of a railroad baron who loses big. 4-45112

But whenever somebody loses big, somebody else wins big. In this case, it's you. Hands down.

Arlene Harden waited eleven years to answer Roy Orbison. Which is kind of slow.

But her answer ("Lovin' Man," 4-45120, a tribute to Roy's "Oh, Pretty Woman") is getting saturation airplay and picks all over the place. Which is fast. Very fast. And national chart action is coming.

The single is from Arlene's new album of belated but fast-moving answers, "Arlene Harden Sings Roy Orbison."

& Charts

ONCE EVERY 133 DAYS,
DAVID ROGERS HAS A HIT.

In a little less than two years,
he's had five consecutive chart singles.
And now it's time for another.
Because David Rogers has a new Columbia release,
"So Much In Love With You."
And it's already getting national airplay.
But then, that's only natural.
Because David Rogers' record speaks for itself.

DAVID ROGERS' NEW COLUMBIA SINGLE

Billboard SPECIAL SURVEY For Week Ending 6/6/70

The Roy Orbison revival began here.

Arlene Harden Sings Roy Orbison

including:
Lovin' Man
(Oh, Pretty Woman)
Crying
It's Over
Only The Lonely
My Friend

A few months ago we released an album of Arlene Harden singing Roy Orbison!?

Now everybody's astonishment (or indifference) has turned to admiration for the girl who'd attempt such an album.

(You don't find songs like "Running Scared," "Crying," and "Lovin' Man (Oh, Pretty Woman)" peppering up the latest albums by your favorite country greats. Try to sing them and you'll find out why.)

A Roy Orbison revival? Possibly.

This week you can tune in almost any country station and hear Orbison.

Via Harden.

Including the hit single "Lovin' Man (Oh, Pretty Woman)" 4-45120

Work out. With Barbara Mandrell's new single.

"Playin' Around With Love," Barbara Mandrell's new Columbia release is already on the charts. With a bullet. And that's only the beginning. Because the song looks like it's going right to the top.

Which is to say, that "Playin' Around With Love" is going to be so easy, it'll be no work at all.

Magazines on Country, Gospel

NASHVILLE — Two more consumer publications, one dealing with country music and one with gospel, will be on the market shortly.

Georgia Chellman, well-known executive here, has been named editor of Gospel Music Jubilee, a publication of Charlton Publications. Mrs. Chellman is president of Veeson International, an advertising and public relations firm, and is vice president of Touchdown and Adventure music publishing companies.

Gospel Music Jubilee will have a 48-page format. Also a magazine, Country/Western Album No. 1, will be distributed from New York by Ideal Publishing Co. It will be placed on newsstands. No editors or other officials have been listed.

Credit Card Tie Aids Music Mart

NASHVILLE — Music Mart has shown an 80 percent increase in monthly sales volume due to the tie-in with the MasterCard and BankAmericard credit systems.

Phil Earhart, general manager of the mail order complex, said the increase has been reflected in the fields of records, tapes and all affiliated music products.

Music Mart is negotiating premium offers with several large manufacturers. It sponsors nightly spots on both WFO Radio, Des Moines, and WSM Radio, Nashville.

From the man who gave you
"If You've Got The Money Honey
(I've Got The Time)."

That was Lefty Frizzell's first hit song. Fourteen years ago. And it went on to become number one on ALL the music charts: one of the rarest occurrences in recording history. Since then, Lefty's had one hit after another.

His latest single is "Watermelon Time In Georgia." It's got a strange title.

But that's what made Lefty right the first time.

Lefty Frizzell's
"Watermelon Time
In Georgia"

I WAKE UP IN HEAVEN

I wake up in heaven each morning with you—
You're such an angel, what else could I do?
I know I'm unworthy of a moment like this,
But I wake up in heaven, that's what loving you is.

Each new day I wake up with your kiss,
Falling soft and warm on my cheek,
And the sight of you there with the sun in your hair,
Makes me too weak to speak.

Then I gain my control and I whisper "Hello,"
And you smile and hold out your hand.
If I ever had doubt of what love is about,
On a morning like this I understand.

'HEROES' GETS FULL PLAY

NASHVILLE—No Atlanta station is "bleeping" any portion of the controversial Bill Anderson song, "Where Have All the Heroes Gone?"

Anderson said there apparently was a misunderstanding, since he said the broadcast of a syndicated show heard in Atlanta had censored portions of the song.

"WPLI is rightfully upset about the report," the Decca artist explained. "It is playing the song in its entirety."

Arts & Charts

The complete Country Music Charts exactly as they appeared in Billboard magazine from 1944 to the present, in high resolution, taken from the celebrated magazine's pages.

From the owner of COUNTRY MUSIC DATABASE® who has one of the largest collections in the world (with records, videos, magazines, books and comics) comes his latest epic project!

More than 70 years of Country Music Charts from the beginning. The volumes are published in random order (like Marvel's beautiful series "The Epic Collection").
